LifeWorks course
27 Feb –3 Mar - Stirling
Have you been applying for jobs with little success? This February you can join other veterans, learning what job roles are best suited to individual personalities, skills and ability as well as how to write a winning CV, and give a great interview.
The fully funded 4.5 day course, delivered by Royal British Legion Industries, provides advice and guidance, and insight into the skills needed to find a job — and keep it. Managing health problems can make working life difficult. Find out what makes you an asset in the work place, and where your skills can be best utilised. LifeWorks is a fully funded vocational assessment and employability course giving veterans the tools they need to get the civilian job they want.
